FUNERAL

Mrs. Palmer Richards.
The funeral of Mrs. Palmer Richards was held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the chapel in South Chapelin. There was a large attendance of neighbors and friends. Rev. Walter E. Lanphear, pastor of the Mansfield Congregational church, officiated. During the service, Abbie With Mr. Jesus, Lover of My Soul, and Shall We Meet Beyond the River, were sung by Mrs. Gertrude Smith, Rev. W. E. Lanphear, Miss Sarah Lawton and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gallup. The bearers were E. M. Russell, James Lewis, E. A. Penno and W. B. Gallup. Burial was in the cemetery at North Windham.

House Quarantined.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Carlsen, Lewiston avenue, was placed under quarantine Monday. Miss Helma, their daughter, is ill with scarlet fever. It is said that it is a mild case.

Next Contest on the Mat.
The match of matches has at last been arranged and the wrestling fans hereabouts will be given the opportunity for which they have been craving, that of seeing Jack McGrath, the Irish Giant, of Norwich, in action against an opponent somewhere near his class. The fine attraction that has been booked by the Windham Athletic club includes a go to a finish, best two out of three, between the much touted athlete and Tall Feather, the Manitoba Indian, who has shown considerable class on several occasions in this city. There will be a couple of fine preliminaries to start the fun and there is sure to be a plenty doing all the evening.

The Irish Giant has a large number of admirers in this city and all have been anxious to see him go. Tall Feather, while considerable lighter, is very strong and is believed by his manager to be fully capable of making the Irish Giant go some. In all probability Frank McLean will be the referee, as his work in that capacity for the past few weeks has met with the approval of all fair-minded sports.

K. OF C. MINSTRELS.
Big House Delighted with Varied and Up-to-date Programmes.

The two-part minstrel show put on at the Loomer opera house Monday evening under the auspices of San Jose council, No. 14, Knights of Columbus, was one of the best local performances that has been witnessed in this city for a long time. The singing and specialties were excellent and all who participated in the fine cast acquitted themselves with ability.

The house was filled, the S. R. O. sign being hung out early. The setting was a plain one and a red background, but the committee in charge received many compliments for the excellence of the performance and the council was highly congratulated upon having such fine talent among its membership.

The ladies of the auxiliary assisted materially to the effectiveness of the finished production and came in for a liberal amount of applause for their part.

PUTNAM

Firemen's Annual Ball a Success in Every Detail—Two Marriages, a Golden and Silver Wedding—Governor Weeks Coming Tonight.

Monday was an important night in the doings of the Putnam fire department for 1910, the tenth annual ball of the organization being held in Hammond hall, with all the adjuncts that have never failed to make it a gratifying success.

The arrangements were up to the usual high standard—there was good music, large and enthusiastic gathering of dancers, handsome decorations, and an opportunity for everyone to enjoy the pre-Lenten season in a thorough manner.

The big hall was never prettier, the decorations being of the most elaborate and a Bridgeport firm, concealing every inch of the walls and ceiling with white and Nile draperies. Sectional lines of shirred bunting divided the overhead space into panels and at intervals the national colors were used to belittle the effectiveness of the generally pleasing draping, which showed to excellent advantage under special electrical lights.

Cargill orchestra of this city played the following concert for the twenty numbers on the dance order: March, Second Connecticut, Reeves; Waltzes, from the Lion and the Mouse, Bendix; Shapiro's Medley Overture No. 4, Alford; march, Up the Street, Ram-dell.

The grand march was led by J. A. P. Gagne, foreman of Mansfield Home company, and Mrs. Gagne, and was participated in by a large number of couples.

Members of the companies of the fire department and their friends, making up a party of more than a hundred, attended the dance in Putnam on Monday evening.

The Danielson people returned here on a special car early this morning.

Watch him, the mysterious way, had it returned to him. The watch was brought to a relative of Mr. Winslow's and given up on condition that it be returned to the owner with all the information as to the person who had possession of it.

It is said that there is a Jack the Tagger operating nights in the Christian Hill section of Danielson. This notice is given to the firemen for following women, touching them lightly, and then making off for him.

Frances Willard Memorial Day.
The members of the W. C. T. U. are to meet with Mrs. John A. Paine this evening at 8 o'clock at the firemen's gathering to honor Frances E. Willard.

First Church in Killingly in 1715.
Withholding the history of the Congregational church at South Killingly, George W. Pike says: "Our church was organized in 1715 by the 'strict' Congregational church in 1746. The first church in Killingly was organized in 1715. This was on what we call Putnam Heights. In 1728 Thompson was set off as a parish by a vote of the town. About 1740 there was much contention for the first church over an attempt to build a larger meeting house and over its location. Many the interest in the geographical center and obtained permission to build there from the committee sent out by the general assembly."

Personal and Social.
Miss Lizzie May Sweet of Providence was the guest over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Colvin.
